The Honorable Ajit V. Pai
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Pai:

We are deeply disturbed by the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) Inspector General's Report of Investigation into the alleged distributed denial-of-service (DDoS) attacks on the Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) during the net neutrality public comment period. As we long suspected, the Inspector General (IG) confirmed that no such attack occurred—rather, the FCC's system simply was unprepared to handle the volume of pro-net neutrality commenters inspired by John Oliver's report.¹ Moreover, the IG found that you made a series of misrepresentations to Congress about the event, which were corrected for the first time in the IG's Report.²

Given the significant media, public, and Congressional attention this alleged cyberattack received for over a year, it is hard to believe that the release of the IG's Report was the first time that you and your staff realized that no cyberattack occurred. Such ignorance would signify a dereliction of your duty as the head of the FCC, particularly due to the severity of the allegations and the blatant lack of evidence. Therefore, we want to know when you and your staff first learned that the information the Commission shared about the alleged cyberattack was false.

It is troubling that you allowed the public myth created by the FCC to persist and your misrepresentations to remain uncorrected for over a year. This is despite repeated requests by members of this Committee — as recently as July 25, 2018 in our oversight hearing — to provide additional information documenting the purported cyberattack.³ To the extent that you were aware of the misrepresentations prior to the release of the Report and failed to correct them, such actions constitute a wanton disregard for Congress and the American public.

Given the very serious nature of these omissions and misrepresentations, Congress and the public deserve more information. We ask that you answer the following questions:

1. The FCC's May 8, 2017 press release states that the May 7-8, 2017 ECFS failure was caused by a DDoS attack.⁴ After May 8, 2017, when did you first become aware that the May 7-8, 2017 ECFS failure may not have been caused by a DDoS attack?
2. The IG's Report documents an exchange between FCC Chief of Staff Matthew Berry and the FCC's then-Chief Information Officer, where Mr. Berry asks for confirmation that the attack was a deliberate attempt to tie up the system and not John Oliver viewers attempting to submit comments.⁵ After May 8, 2017, when did Mr. Berry first become aware that the May 7-8, 2017 ECFS failure may not have been caused by a DDoS attack?
3. Why did you not issue a correction of the agency's previous public statements about the incident once you became aware they were inaccurate?
4. Why did you not seek to correct your misrepresentations to Congress either publicly or on a confidential basis once you became aware they were inaccurate?
5. In your August 6, 2018 statement about the IG's Report, you indicate that on request of the IG's office, you have not publicly discussed the investigation.⁶ Did the IG's office specifically ask that you not correct your misrepresentations to Congress? Did the IG's office specifically ask that you not disclose to the public that previous FCC statements alleging a cyberattack were unfounded? Please provide copies of all such written requests and guidance or memorialization of an oral request from the IG's office.

6. When did you or your office receive an initial draft of the IG's report? Did you request any edits or changes to the report? If so, please provide documentation of those requests.
7. Why have you still not corrected the FCC's previous statements to the public and Congress?
8. Are there other oral or written statements you have made to Congress that are misrepresentations or inaccurate and have not been corrected? If so, please provide a written correction of such statements.

Please provide complete written responses to these inquiries by August 28, 2018. We appreciate your attention to this important matter. Should you have any questions, please contact Gerald Leverich of the Democratic Committee staff at (202) 225-3641.
