22 v.
23 WORLD PROGRAMMING LIMITED
24 Defendant.

25) CASE NO: 2:18cv603 VAP (PJWx)
26) JOINT NOTICE OF
27) PAYMENT OF JUDGMENT
28)

1 World Programming Limited (“WPL”) and SAS Institute (“SAS”) hereby jointly
2 notify the Court of the following:

3 This proceeding was initiated to enforce an unpaid federal judgment from North
4 Carolina. On April 12, 2021, this Court entered an order (1) that required WPL to assign
5 to SAS the right to payments from various WPL customers “until such time as the North
6 Carolina judgment ... is fully satisfied,” (2) that authorized SAS’s counsel to collect
7 payments directly from those WPL customers, and (3) that subject to various restrictions,
8 ordered turnover of funds “subject to” the assignment. Dkt. 205.

9 On January 3, 2022, WPL’s new owner, Altair Engineering Inc., wired to SAS on 10 behalf of WPL the sum of $65,915,088.89—the total amount still outstanding on the 11 judgment. On January 4, 2022, SAS confirmed receipt of the payment. On March 3,
12 2022, the North Carolina court confirmed that the judgment has been paid and satisfied,
13 and directed SAS to file information with the North Carolina clerk of court to reflect
14 satisfaction of the outstanding judgment. On March 4, 2022, the North Carolina court
15 entered an order amplifying in writing upon its March 3, 2022 determination. On March 16 7, 2022, SAS filed a Satisfaction of Judgment with the North Carolina court.

17 The parties hereby notify the Court that the North Carolina judgment has been 18 fully satisfied and that WPL now has all rights to payment due or to become due from 19 WPL customers and so all future payments from WPL customers should be directed to 20 and collected by WPL. Accordingly, the parties believe the Court can now enter an 21 order terminating this case.
