19 NATURE OF COMPLAINT

20
21 Plaintiff, Derek L. Mobley (“Mobley” or “Representative Plaintiff”) brings this suit for 22 injunctive, monetary, and declarative relief against Defendant Workday, Inc. (“Workday”) for 23 engaging in a pattern or practice of illegal discrimination on the basis of race, age, and disability
24 in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 (“42 U.S.C.
25 § 1981), the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, and the ADA Amendments Act of 26 2008 (“ADAAA”). Defendant Workday, Inc.’s (“Workday” or “Defendant”) continuous and 27 systemic pattern or practice of discriminatory job screening-which disproportionately
28

1 disqualifies African-Americans, individuals over the age of forty (40) and individuals with
2 disabilities from securing gainful employment-resulted in the denial of employment to Mr.
3 Mobley.

4 Defendant Workday, Inc.’s artificial intelligence (“AI”) systems and screening tools rely 5 on algorithms and inputs created by humans who often have built-in motivations, conscious and 6 unconscious, to discriminate. Defendant Workday, Inc. unlawfully offers an algorithm-based 7 applicant screening system that determines whether an employer should accept or reject an 8 application for employment based on the individual’s race, age, and or disability.
9

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11
12 1. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(3),
13 and (4), 2201 and 2202, 42 U.S.C. 2000d-2 and 2000e5(f), and 29 U.S.C. § 621, et seq.

14 2. This is a suit authorized and instituted pursuant to the Act of Congress known as 15 Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000 et seq., as amended, “The Civil 16 Rights Act of 1866,” 42 U.S.C. § 1981, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29
17 U.S.C. § 621, et seq., and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (“ADAAA”).
18

19 3. Venue is proper in the Northern District of California under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(B)
20 & (c) because Workday is located here and the acts complained of occurred in the Northern 21 District of California.

22 PARTIES

23 4. Plaintiff, Derek Mobley is an African -American male, over the age of forty (40)
24 and who suffers from depression and anxiety. Mr. Mobley is an applicant.
25
26
27
28

5. Defendant Workday is an employment agency pursuant to Section 703(b) of the Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(b). Defendant Workday’s headquarters and principal place of business is located at 6110 Stoneridge Mall Road, Pleasanton, California.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO SUIT UNDER TITLE VII, THE ADEA AND THE ADA

6. On June 3, 2021, Mr. Mobley filed a charge of discrimination with the Oakland Field Office of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. On July 19, 2021, Mr. Mobley filed an amended charge of discrimination. On November 22, 2022, the EEOC issued Mr. Mobley a Dismissal and Notice of Right to Sue, giving him ninety-days from its receipt to file a case. Thus, Mr. Mobley has satisfied all prerequisites to bring this action pursuant to Title VII, the ADEA, and the ADA.

7. Mr. Mobley’s claims arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1981 do not require administrative exhaustion and are subject to a four-year statute of limitations.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

8. The Representative Plaintiff brings this action in his own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and seek to represent the following subclasses:

- All African-American applicants or former applicants who from June 3, 2019 to the present who have not been referred and/or permanently hired for employment as a result of the challenged discriminatory screening process.

- All applicants or former applicants over the age of forty (40) who from June 3, 2019 to the present who have not been referred and/or permanently hired for employment as a result of the challenged discriminatory screening process.

1 •All disabled applicants or former applicants who from June 3, 2019 to the present who
2 have not been referred and/or permanently hired for employment as a result of the challenged
3 discriminatory screening process.

4 Mr. Mobley in the case at bar challenges systemic discrimination by, and seeks class-
5 wide relief against, Workday for its administration and dissemination of discriminatory screening
6 products as part of its employment policies and procedures which constitute a pattern and 7 practice of discrimination on the basis of race, age, and disability with respect to selections.
8 These policies and procedures have been continuously utilized by the Defendant since at least 9 2018, and their implementation and use has personally harmed the named the Plaintiff, and the 10 putative class members he seeks to represent. Moreover, the selection tools marketed by 11 Workday to its customers allows these customers to manipulate and configure them in a 12 discriminatory manner to recruit, hire, and onboard employees. Workday's products process and 13 interpret an applicant's qualifications and recommend whether the applicant should be accepted
14 or rejected.
15

17 These tools when utilized by private companies as administered by Workday relies upon
18 subjective practices which have caused disparate impact and disparate treatment to applicants
19 who are African-American, over the age of forty (40) or and/or disabled. Applicants who are not
20 members of these protected groups and who are similarly situated to the Representative Plaintiff,
21 have not been subjected to such discriminatory treatment.
22

23 A. COMMON QUESTIONS OF LAW AND FACT

24 9. The prosecution of the claims of the Representative Plaintiff requires adjudication
25 of numerous questions of law and fact common to his individual claims and those of the putative
26 classes he seeks to represent. The common questions of law would include, inter alia: (a)
27 whether the Defendant's screening products cause African-American, individuals over the age of 28

1 forty (40), and/or individuals with a disability to be disproportionately and more likely denied
2 employment; (b) whether the Defendant's doing so cannot be justified as a necessary business
3 practice for evaluating potential employees; and (c) whether the Defendant's screening products
4 have a disparate impact on applicants who are African-American, over the age of forty (40),
5 and/or disabled in violation of the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," 42 U.S.C. § 2000 et seq., the
6 "Civil Rights Act of 1866," 42 U.S.C. § 1981 and 1981a, the Age Discrimination in Employment
7 Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. § 621, et seq., and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 ("ADAAA").
8 The common questions of fact would include, inter alia: (1) whether Workday's administration
9 of its screening products discriminated against the aforementioned applicants because of their
10 race, age, and/or disability with regards to hiring; (2) whether compensatory and punitive
11 damages, injunctive relief, and other equitable remedies for the class are warranted; and (3)
12 whether Workday discriminated against the aforementioned protected groups in other terms and 13 conditions of employment. The details of the Representative Plaintiff's claims are encompassed
14 within the claims prosecuted on behalf of the class and set forth in this Complaint.
15

17 B. TYPICALITY

18 10. The claims of the Representative Plaintiff are typical of those of the members of 19 the class. The Representative Plaintiff and all class members have been and are similarly 20 adversely affected by the systemic racially discriminatory practices complained of herein.
21 Specifically, the representative claims, like those of the class members, arise out of Defendant's 22 pervasive discriminatory conduct with regard to aforementioned discrimination in hiring and 23 other terms and conditions of employment. The relief necessary to remedy the claims of the 24 Representative Plaintiff is the same relief that is necessary to remedy the claims of the putative
25 class members in this case. The Representative Plaintiff seeks the following relief for individual
26 claims and class claims asserted herein: (1) declaratory judgment that Defendant has engaged in 27
28

1 systemic discrimination against African-Americans, individuals over the age of forty (40),
2 and/or the disabled; (2) a permanent injunction against such continuing discrimination; (3)
3 injunctive relief which reforms Workday's screening products, policies, practices and procedures
4 so that the Representative Plaintiff and the class members will be able to compete fairly in the 5 future for jobs and enjoy terms and conditions of employment traditionally afforded similarly
6 situated employees outside of the protected categories; (4) backpay, front pay, compensatory
7 damages, and other equitable remedies necessary to make the Plaintiff, and the class, whole from 8 Workday's past discrimination; and, (5) attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses.

10 C. NUMEROSITY AND IMPRACTICABILITY OF JOINDER

11 11. The class that the Representative Plaintiff seeks to represent is too numerous to 12 make joinder practicable. The proposed class consists of numerous former, current, and future 13 applicants who have been denied employment due to the discriminatory administration of 14 Workday's screening products. Workday's pattern or practice of discrimination also makes 15 joinder impracticable by making it impractical and inefficient to identify many members of the 16 class prior to the determination of the merits of Workday's class wide liability. Thus, the 17 number of Class members is currently indeterminate, but is certainly numerous.

19 D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

20 12. The Representative Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the 21 class inasmuch as they are broadly representative, as reflected in the preceding paragraphs.
22 There are no conflicts of interest present with the members of the proposed class as each would
23 benefit from the imposition of a remedy for the Defendant's discriminatory employment
24 practices. The Representative Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in litigating major class 25 actions in the field of employment discrimination, and who are prepared and able to meet the 26 time and fiscal demands of class action litigation of this size and complexity. The combined
27
28

1 interest, experience, and resources of the Representative Plaintiff and his counsel to litigate
2 competently the individual and class claims of employment discrimination at issue satisfy the 3 adequacy of representation requirement under Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(a)(4).

4 E. EFFICIENCY OF CLASS PROSECUTION OF COMMON CLAIMS

5 13. Certification of a class of similarly-situated aforementioned applicants is the most 6 efficient and economical means of resolving the questions of law and fact that are common to the 7 individual claims of the Representative Plaintiff and the proposed class. The individual claim of 8 the Representative Plaintiff requires resolution of the common question of whether Defendant
9 has engaged in a systemic pattern of discrimination against African-Americans, those over forty 10 (40) and the disabled. The Representative Plaintiff seeks remedies to undo the adverse effects of 11 such discrimination in his own life and career. The Representative Plaintiff has standing to seek 12 such relief because of the adverse effect that such discrimination has had on him individually and 13 on the putative classes he seeks to represent, in general. In order to gain such relief for himself, 14 as well as for the putative class members, the Representative Plaintiff will first establish the 15 existence of systemic discrimination as the premise of the relief they seek. Without class 16 certification, the same evidence and issues would be subject to re-litigation in a multitude of 17 individual lawsuits with an attendant risk of inconsistent adjudications and conflicting 18 obligations. Certification of the subclasses affected by the common questions of law and fact is 19 the most efficient and judicious means of presenting the evidence and arguments necessary to 20 resolve such questions for the Representative Plaintiff, the class and the Defendant. The 21 Representative Plaintiff's individual and class claims are premised upon the traditional 22 bifurcated method of proof and trial for systemic disparate treatment claims of the type at issue
23 in this complaint. Such a bifurcated method of proof and trial is the most efficient method of 24 resolving such common issues.

F. CERTIFICATION IS SOUGHT PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 23(b)(2)

14. Workday has acted on grounds generally applicable to the Representative Plaintiff and the proposed class by adopting and following systemic practices and procedures that discriminate on the basis of race, age, and/or disability. Workday’s screening products are regularly used to discriminate on the basis of race, age, and/or disability. Workday has refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the putative class by: (1) refusing to adopt or follow screening productions and selection procedures which do not systemically discriminate on the basis of race, age, and/or disability. Workday’s discriminatory screening products have made appropriate final injunctive relief and declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole. The injunctive relief and declaratory relief are the predominate reliefs sought because they are both the culmination of the proof of the Defendant’s individual and class-wide liability at the end of Stage I of a bifurcated trial and the essential predicate for the Representative Plaintiff and the class members entitlement to monetary and non-monetary remedies at Stage II of such a trial. Declaratory and injunctive relief flow directly and automatically from proof of the common questions of law and fact regarding the existence of systemic discrimination against individuals on the basis of race, age, and/or disability. Such relief is the factual and legal predicate for the Representative Plaintiff’s and the class members entitlement to injunctive and equitable remedies caused by such systemic discrimination.

G. ALTERNATIVELY CERTIFICATION IS SOUGHT PURSUANT TO FED. R.CIV. P. 23(b)(3)

15. The common issues of fact and law affecting the claims of the Representative Plaintiff and proposed class members, including, but not limited to, the common issues identified above, predominate, over any issues affecting only individual claims. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the Representative

1 Plaintiff and members of the proposed class. The cost of proving the Defendant's pattern or 2 practice of discrimination makes it impracticable for the named Plaintiffs and members of the 3 proposed class to control the prosecution of their claims individually. The Northern District of 4 California is the most logical forum in which to litigate the claims of the Representative Plaintiff
5 and the proposed class in this case because the Defendant's home office is here and it engages in 6 or ratifies illegal conduct adversely affecting the Plaintiff here.

7
8 H. ALTERNATIVELY, CERTIFICATION IS SOUGHT PURSUANT TO FED. R.
9 CIV. P. 23(c)(4) FOR INJUNCTIVE AND DECLARATORY RELIEF.

10 16. Alternatively, claims for injunctive and declaratory relief for the Injunctive Relief
11 Class are properly certified under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(4) because such claims 12 present only common issues, the resolution of which would advance the interests of the parties in 13 an efficient manner.

14 I. ALTERNATIVELY, CERTIFICATION IS SOUGHT PURSUANT TO FED. R.
15 CIV. P. 23(c)(4) FOR CLASS WIDE LIABILITY.

16 17. Alternatively, class wide liability claims are properly certified under Federal Rule
17 of Civil Procedure 23(c)(4) for the Classes because such claims present only common issues, the 18 resolution of which would advance the interests of the parties in an efficient manner.

19 J. PUNITIVE DAMAGES MAY ALTERNATIVELY BE CERTIFIED
20 PURSUANT TO FED.R.CIV.P. 23(b)(2).

21 18. Punitive damages liability may alternatively be certified under Federal Rule of 22 Civil Procedure 23(b)(2) because such relief focuses on the conduct of Workday and not the 23 individual characteristics of the Plaintiff and are an allowable form of incidental monetary relief.
25
26
27
28

CLAIMS OF REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFFS

Derek Mobley

19. Derek L. Mobley is an African-American male. Mr. Mobley possesses a Bachelor's degree in Finance from Morehouse College, and an Associate's Degree in Network Systems Administration, from ITT Technical Institute. Mr. Mobley is over the age of forty (40) and suffers from anxiety and depression.

20. Since 2018, Mr. Mobley has applied for at least 80-100 positions that upon information and belief use Workday, Inc. as a screening tool for talent acquisition and/or hiring. He has been denied employment each and every time.

21. Upon information and belief, Workday, Inc. provides screening tools that allow its customers to use discriminatory and subjective judgments in reviewing and evaluating employees for hire and allows the preselection of applicants outside of the protected categories. Indeed, because of the utilization of these screening products, there is no need in this case to distinguish one employer/client from another. Similarly, as the Representative Plaintiff here is challenging the use of these common discriminatory screening products per se, and not merely the individualized manifestations of their use, the fact that the common components may vary to some small degree or be applied by different customers is of no consequence.

22. If an individual does not make it past these Workday screening products, he/she will not advance in the hiring process.

23. Workday provides this service for hundreds if not thousands of companies, including numerous Fortune 500 firms. Individuals impacted the same way by these processes number in the thousands if not tens of thousands.

24. The selection tools and/or tests utilized by Workday, Inc. in making selection decisions-to include screening and hiring applicants discriminate on the basis of race in violation

1 of §703(k) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §2000e-2(k). Upon information and belief, these processes
2 disparately impact African-American applicants because the tests have the effect of
3 disproportionately excluding African-Americans. Furthermore, the tests or selection procedures
4 are not job-related, nor are they consistent with any business necessity.

5
6 25. Title VII prohibits discrimination by employment agencies. Section 703(b) of the 7 Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(b), reads:

8 “it shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer
9 for employment, or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because of his race, color,
10 religion, sex, or national origin, or to classify or refer for employment any individual on the basis
11 of his race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Section 701(c) of the Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12 2000e(c), defines the term “employment agency” as: any person regularly undertaking with or 13 without compensation to procure employees for an employer or to procure for employees
14 opportunities to work for an employer and includes an agent of such a person. Workday, Inc. Is 15 an employment agency under Title VII.
16

17 26. Upon information and belief, Mr. Mobley and other African-Americans have been 18 discriminated against because of their race (African-American), in violation of the Civil Rights
19 Act of 1964, as amended.

20
21 27. Furthermore, the screening tools marketed by Workday for the administration of 22 its products discriminate on the basis of disability in violation of the ADA Amendments Act of 23 2008 (ADAAA). Upon information and belief, these processes disparately impact disabled
24 applicants because the screening products have the effect of disproportionately excluding 25 individuals with disabilities. Furthermore, the screening products are not job-related, nor are 26 they consistent with any business necessity.
27
28

1 28. Finally, the screening tools marketed by Workday for hiring applicants
2 discriminate on the basis of age in violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 3 1967 (ADEA).

4 29. Upon information and belief, these screening tools disparately impact applicants
5 over the age of 40 because the tests have the effect of disproportionately excluding them.
6 Furthermore, the screening tools are not job-related, nor are they consistent with any business
7 necessity.
8

9 CLASS CLAIMS

10 A. COUNT ONE-Intentional Discrimination on the Basis of Race
11 in Violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and
12 42 U.S.C. § 1981.

13 30. Representative Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference all applicable
14 paragraphs above as part of this Count of the Complaint.

15 31. Workday has discriminated against the Representative Plaintiff and the class he 16 Seeks to represent with regards to selection procedures and other terms and conditions of 17 employment because of their race, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and
18 42 U.S.C. § 1981.

19 32. Workday's conduct has been intentional, deliberate, willful and conducted with 20 disregard for the rights of the Plaintiff and members of the proposed class.

21 33. By reason of Workday's discriminatory employment practices, the Representative
22 Plaintiff and the proposed class members have experienced extreme harm, including loss of 23 compensation, wages, back and front pay, and other employment benefits, and, as such, are 24 entitled to all legal and equitable remedies available under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 25 1964 and 42 U.S.C. § 1981.
26
27
28

B. COUNT TWO-Disparate Impact Discrimination on the Basis of Race and Disability in Violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008.

34. Representative Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference all applicable paragraphs above as part of this Count of the Complaint.

35. The screening tools marketed Workday for making selection decisions-to include hiring discriminate on the basis of race and/or disability.

36. Workday’s screening tools allow employers to consciously or unconsciously discriminate against individuals on the basis of race and/or disability in making hiring decisions. There is no business necessity justifying the disparate impact on individuals in the protective category.

37. Because of this, the decision-makers are free to exercise their discretion in an unguided, subjective manner that provides a ready mechanism for discrimination.

38. Workday’s screening tools discriminated against the Representative Plaintiff and the proposed class both within and outside the liability period in this case.

39. As a direct result of Workday’s discriminatory screening tools as described above, the Representative Plaintiff and the class he seeks to represent have suffered damages including, but not limited to, lost past and future income, compensation, and benefits.

C. COUNT THREE- Intentional Discrimination Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. §§ 623(a)(1)

40. Representative Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference all applicable paragraphs above as part of this Count of the Complaint.

41. This claim is brought by the Representative Plaintiff on behalf of himself and the collective he seeks to represent. Workday’s screening tools discriminate against applicants aged

1 40 and older. Workday marketed applicant screening tools it knew intentionally discriminated
2 against the Representative Plaintiff and the collective in violation of the ADEA.

3 42. These screening tools have the effect of denying the Representative Plaintiff and
4 the collective of employment opportunities because of their age. The discriminatory acts that 5 constitute Workday's pattern and/or practice of discrimination have occurred both within and
6 outside the liability period in this case.

7
8 43. As a direct result of Workday's marketing its discriminatory screening tools as 9 described above, the Representative Plaintiff and the collective have suffered damages including,
10 but not limited to, lost past and future income, compensation, and benefits.

11 44. The foregoing conduct constitutes illegal, intentional discrimination and 12 unjustified disparate treatment prohibited by 29 U.S.C. § 623(a)(1).

13
14 D. COUNT FOUR- Disparate Impact Discrimination
15 Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. §§ 623(a)(2)

16 45. Representative Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference all applicable
17 paragraphs above as part of this Count of the Complaint.

18 46. This Claim is brought by Representative Plaintiff on behalf of himself and the 19 collective he seeks to represent. Workday maintains discriminatory policies, patterns, and/or 20 practices that have an adverse impact on employees ages 40 and older in violation of the ADEA
21 and are not, and cannot be, justified by reasonable factors other than age. Specifically,
22 Workday's marketing of its screening tools have had a disparate impact on individuals over the 23 age of 40.

24 47. Workday has administered these discriminatory screening tools both within and
25 outside the liability period in this case.
26
27
28

1 48. As a direct result of Workday's discriminatory policies and/or practices as 2 described above, the Representative Plaintiff and the collective he seeks to represent have 3 suffered damages including, but not limited to, lost past and future income, compensation, and 4 benefits.

5
6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 WHEREFORE, the Representative Plaintiff and the Proposed Class pray for relief as 8 follow:

- 9 1. Certification of the case as a class action on behalf the proposed subclasses;
- 10 2. Designation of Plaintiffs as representatives of the subclasses;
- 11 3. Designation of Plaintiffs' Counsel of record as Class Counsel;
- 12 4. A declaratory judgment that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and 13 violate Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 1981, the ADEA, and the ADA;A;
- 14 5. A preliminary and permanent injunction against the Company and its officers,
15 agent, successors employees, representatives, and any and all persons acting in correct with them
16 from engaging in each of the unlawful policies, practices, customs, and usages set forth herein;
- 17 6. An order that the Company institute and carry out policies, practices, and 18 programs that provide equal employment opportunities for all minorities, and that it eradicate the 19 effects of its past and present unlawful employment practices;
- 20 7. For back pay, front pay and other monetary relief according to proof (including 21 interest and benefits);
- 22 8. For all damages sustained as a result of the Company's conduct according to 23 proof;
- 24 9. For compensatory damages, nominal damages, and liquidated damages according 25 to proof;
- 26
27
28
