INDICTMENT Case: 1:24-cr-00386
Assigned To : Judge Amy Berman Jackson
Assign. Date : 8/22/2024
Description: Indictment (B)

The Grand Jury charges that:

COUNT ONE
(18 U.S.C. § 371 — Conspiracy)

1. From no later than in or around December of 2020 through in or around January of 2024, in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, the defendants,

THOMASZ SZABO
and

did knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other and with others known and unknown to commit offenses against the United States, namely:

- a. To, through the use of the telephone and other instruments of interstate and foreign commerce, willfully make threats, and maliciously convey false information knowing the same to be false, concerning attempts to kill, injure, and intimidate individuals and unlawfully to damage and destroy buildings by means of fire and explosives, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 844(e).
- b. To knowingly and willfully transmit in interstate and foreign commerce communications containing threats to injure the person of another, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 875(c).
- c. To, with the intent to injure, harass, and intimidate another person, use facilities of interstate and foreign commerce, including interactive computer services and electronic communication services, to engage in a course of conduct that would reasonably be expected to cause substantial emotional distress to the person and to the person's immediate family members, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2261A(2)(B).

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

2. SZABO and RADOVANOVIC, with others known and unknown, carried out the conspiracy through the following manner and means, among others:
 - a. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others obtained personal identifying information, including home addresses, for victims they wished to harass and endanger.
 - b. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others carried out "swatting" attacks against their victims by falsely reporting ongoing threats of violence at the victims' home addresses for the purpose of provoking a police response (such as the deployment of a SWAT team) at those locations.

- c. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others made false bomb threats against government entities, houses of worship, and businesses.
- d. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others sought to conceal their identities through the use of virtual private networks, text-to-speech apps, and internet-based phone services.
- e. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others communicated in online chat groups organized and moderated by SZABO.
- f. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others used monikers (that is, online usernames or nicknames) to communicate with one another. SZABO's monikers included but were not limited to "Jonah," "Jonah Goldberg," "Plank," "Rambler," "War Lord," "Shovel," "Cypher," "Kollectivist," "Mortenberg Shekelstorms," and "NotThuggin2." RADOVANOVIC's monikers included but were not limited to "XBD31," "XDR," "Angus," "Thuggin," "Thug Hunter," "NotThuggin," "DCL," and "AOD."
- g. SZABO, RADOVANOVIC, and others promoted their criminal activity by, for example, live-streaming their "swatting" attacks in online chat groups made up of like-minded individuals.
