SECONDARY AUTHORITIES

H.R. Conf. Rep. No. 10s4-369 (1995)9, 5

1 TO: ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 14, 2024, at 9:00 a.m., before the Honorable 3 Edward J. Davila, at the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, 4 Courtroom 4 – 5th Floor, 280 South 1st Street, San Jose, CA 95113, class representative Eastern 5 Atlantic States Carpenters Pension Fund (“Lead Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”), on behalf of 6 itself and all members of the certified Class, will and does hereby move the Court for an Order, 7 pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure: (i) preliminarily approving the proposed 8 settlement (the “Settlement”) of this Action as set forth in the Stipulation;¹ (ii) authorizing the 9 retention of Gilardi & Co. LLC (“Gilardi”) as the administrator for the Settlement; (iii) approving 10 the form and manner of giving notice of the proposed Settlement to the Class; (iv) scheduling a 11 hearing before the Court to determine whether the proposed Settlement, the proposed Plan of 12 Allocation, and Lead Counsel’s motion for an award of attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses, 13 including an award to the Class Representative, should be approved; and (v) providing such other 14 and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

15 This motion is based on the Memorandum of Points and Authorities below and Appendix A 16 thereto, the Saham Declaration and exhibits attached thereto, the Declaration of Peter Crudo 17 Regarding Notice and Administration submitted herewith (the “Crudo Decl.”), the Stipulation and 18 attached exhibits, all prior pleadings in this Litigation, and such additional evidence or argument as 19 may be requested by the Court.

20 A proposed Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Notice (the 21 “Preliminary Approval Order”) with annexed exhibits is also submitted herewith.

22 _____
23 ¹ All capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the 24 Stipulation of Settlement dated October 4, 2024 (the “Stipulation”), a true and correct copy of which 25 is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Scott H. Saham in Support of Lead Plaintiff’s Motion
26 for Preliminary Approval of Proposed Class Action Settlement (the “Saham Decl.”), submitted 27 herewith. Emphasis is added and citations are omitted throughout unless otherwise noted.

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE DECIDED

2 1. Whether the $102,500,000.00 cash recovery and the other terms of the Settlement of 3 this Action are within the range of fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy to warrant the Court’s 4 preliminary approval and the dissemination of notice of its terms to Class Members.

5 2. Whether the Court should approve the form and substance of the proposed Notice of 6 Pendency and Proposed Settlement of Class Action (“Notice”), Proof of Claim and Release Form 7 (“Proof of Claim”), Summary Notice, and Postcard Notice, appended as Exhibits A-1 through A-4 to 8 the Preliminary Approval Order, as well as the manner of notifying the Class of the Settlement.

9 3. Whether the Court should set a date for a hearing to determine whether the Settlement
10 and the Plan of Allocation should be finally approved, and to consider Lead Counsel’s application
11 for an award of attorneys’ fees and payment of expenses, including an award to the Class
12 Representative pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4) in connection with its representation of the Class 13 (“Settlement Hearing”).

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

14
15
16 Lead Plaintiff, on behalf of all persons and entities who purchased the publicly traded Class 17 A common stock of VMware during the Class Period and were damaged thereby (the “Class”),² and 18 defendants VMware LLC (“VMware” or the “Company”) and Patrick P. Gelsinger and Zane Rowe 19 (“Individual Defendants” and together with VMware, “Defendants”) have reached a proposed 20 Settlement of this securities class action for $102.5 million cash. The Class consists of thousands of 21 investors who in aggregate purchased an estimated 54.9 million damaged shares. Lead Plaintiff is 22 seeking an attorney fee award not to exceed 25% of the Settlement Amount, in addition to expenses
23 not to exceed $950,000, plus interest on both amounts, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. Lead 24 Plaintiff also estimates that other expenses associated with the dissemination of the Postcard Notice

25
26
27 ² The Class Period is August 24, 2018, to February 27, 2020, inclusive.

1 and distribution of the Settlement Fund will total approximately $243,375.³ Thus Lead Plaintiff
 2 estimates that 73.8% of the fund or approximately $75.6 million will be distributed to the Class
 3 pursuant to the Plan of Allocation (see Stipulation, Ex. A-1 at 8-14), which mirrors the damages 4 suffered by the Class in this Action. Lead Plaintiff further estimates that the average recovery per 5 share will be approximately $1.37. Pursuant to the Stipulation, the Settling Parties propose the 6 Council of Institutional Investors (“CII”) as the designated cy pres recipient for any de minimis 7 balance remaining after all reallocations are completed. See Stipulation, ¶5.9. Finally, the proposed 8 method of notice is detailed in the Crudo Declaration. This method has been repeatedly approved by 9 Courts in this District. Based on the details set forth herein, Lead Plaintiff now moves the Court, 10 pursuant to Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, applicable Ninth Circuit precedent, 11 and the guidelines set forth in the Northern District of California’s Procedural Guidance for Class 12 Action Settlements (the “Guidelines”),⁴ to preliminarily approve the Settlement.

13 The Settlement is the product of a “mediator’s proposal” and came after over four years of 14 hard-fought litigation and thus at a time when the Settling Parties were fully aware of the strengths 15 and potential weaknesses of their respective positions.⁵ As set forth below, the Settlement was 16 reached following: review of over 800,000 pages of documents, 10 depositions, lengthy discussions 17 with leading experts, and lengthy and in-depth negotiations between experienced counsel, with the 18 assistance of the Honorable Layn R. Phillips (Ret.) and Phillips ADR Enterprises, a highly respected 19 mediation firm that has extensive experience in complex securities litigation. The Settlement, which

20 _____
 21 ³ This estimate is highly dependent on the number of notices ultimately emailed and mailed and 22 the number of claims ultimately received. See Crudo Decl., ¶28.

23 ⁴ The Guidelines are addressed in Appendix A attached hereto. While a court may “consider 24 them,” the Guidelines “do not carry the weight of law.” Norton v. LVNV Funding, LLC, 2021 WL 25 3129568, at *12 (N.D. Cal. July 23, 2021).

26 _____
 27 ⁵ The term “Settling Parties” as used herein refers collectively to Lead Plaintiff and Defendants.

1 represents a range of 10.7% to 34% of the estimated aggregate damages in this case, and which is 2 nearly 13 times what the SEC recovered from VMware, is an exceptional result for the Class and 3 falls significantly above the typical range of percentage recoveries in securities class actions.

4 Prior to reaching the Settlement, Lead Plaintiff had significantly advanced this Action by,
5 among other things: (i) filing detailed complaints, culminating in the Third Amended Consolidated 6 Complaint for Violations of the Federal Securities Laws (ECF 85) (“Third Amended Complaint”); 7 (ii) litigating two rounds of Defendants’ motions to dismiss, including additional supplementary 8 briefing; (iii) completing extensive fact discovery involving the exchange and review of 9 approximately 650,000 pages of documents between the Settling Parties, 10 fact depositions, and 10 over 30 subpoenas issued to third-parties which culminated in the receipt and review of over 25,000 11 documents (approximately 175,000 pages); and (iv) successfully obtaining class certification. Even 12 considering the considerable progress that Lead Plaintiff achieved in advancing the Action, when 13 evaluating the merits of the Settlement, Lead Plaintiff recognized that, even if it were to prevail on 14 summary judgment and at trial, Defendants likely would appeal any favorable judgment, delaying 15 and possibly jeopardizing any recovery.

16 Accordingly, Lead Plaintiff developed a keen understanding of the strengths and weaknesses 17 of its claims and respectfully submits that the Settlement is in the best interests of the Class, 18 represents a significant recovery, and merits preliminary approval.

19 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

20 A. Factual Background

21 The allegations and claims in this Action are familiar to the Court, and so Lead Plaintiff shall 22 only briefly describe them at this preliminary approval stage. Lead Plaintiff alleged that during the 23 Class Period (August 24, 2018, through February 27, 2020), Defendants made materially false or 24 misleading statements in violation of § 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange 25 Act”) and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, which caused the price of VMware stock to trade at 26 artificially inflated prices. Specifically, Lead Plaintiff alleged that Defendants deceptively recorded 27 VMware’s sales as backlog so that the revenue from those sales could be recognized in subsequent

1 quarters as opposed to the quarter in which they were actually made. The Third Amended 2 Complaint alleged that Defendants inflated backlog with sales that were not required to meet current 3 period guidance throughout Fiscal Year (“FY”) 2019, which misled investors as to the likelihood 4 that FY 2020 guidance would be met. The Third Amended Complaint further alleged that 5 Defendants treated the inflated backlog – nearly half a billion dollars at the end of FY 2019 – as a 6 slush fund, drawing on it throughout FY 2020 rather than recognizing the revenue in FY 2019. The 7 Third Amended Complaint alleged that by deferring revenue to FY 2020, VMware was able to 8 continue to deliver double-digit earnings growth in FY 2020, despite operational challenges that 9 year.

10 Lead Plaintiff alleged that the truth of Defendants’ conduct came to light through a series of 11 partial disclosures in FY 2020, culminating on February 27, 2020, when the Company revealed that:
12 (1) VMware’s total backlog had declined 96% from its peak just one year prior; (2) VMware poorly
13 managed the industry-shift to subscription and SaaS products; and (3) VMware could not meet Q4 14 2020 or FY 2020 revenue guidance issued just three months prior. The same day, VMware also 15 announced that in December 2019, the SEC launched an investigation into the Company’s backlog
16 and associated accounting and disclosures, on the heels of the sudden resignation of the Company’s 17 Chief Accounting Officer. Lead Plaintiff alleged that persons who purchased VMware stock during 18 the Class Period suffered economic losses when the price of VMware stock declined as a result of 19 the disclosures that revealed the backlog issues to investors. Defendants deny Lead Plaintiff’s 20 allegations.

21 B. Procedural History

22 The initial complaint was filed on March 31, 2020. ECF 1. On July 20, 2020, the Court
23 appointed Eastern Atlantic States Carpenters Pension Fund as Lead Plaintiff, and Robbins Geller
24 Rudman & Dowd LLP (“Robbins Geller”) as Lead Counsel. ECF 45. Lead Plaintiff filed a 25 Consolidated Complaint for Violations of the Federal Securities Laws (the “Amended Complaint”)
26 on September 18, 2020. ECF 50. The Amended Complaint asserted violations of §§10(b), 20(a), 27 and 20A of the Exchange Act. Defendants filed their motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint on

1 November 17, 2020. ECF 51. On September 10, 2021, the Court issued an Order Granting in Part 2 and Denying in Part Motion to Dismiss with Leave to Amend. ECF 60.

3 On October 8, 2021, Lead Plaintiff filed the Second Amended Consolidated Complaint for 4 Violations of the Federal Securities Laws (the “Second Amended Complaint”). ECF 63. On 5 November 5, 2021, Defendants again moved for dismissal. ECF 64. On September 12, 2022, while 6 Defendants’ motion to dismiss the Second Amended Complaint was pending, the U.S. Securities and 7 Exchange Commission issued an Order Instituting Cease-and-Desist Proceedings Pursuant to 8 Section 8A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 9 Making Findings, and Imposing a Cease-and-Desist Order (the “SEC Order”) against VMware. See 10 ECF 77. The Court thereafter permitted the parties to provide additional briefing on Defendants’ 11 motion to dismiss concerning the effect of the SEC Order on the allegations in the Second Amended 12 Complaint. ECF 81.

13 After the supplemental briefing, the Court held that Lead Plaintiff had adequately pled its 14 §§20(a) and 20A claims, as well as certain of its §10(b) and Rule 10b-5 claims, and ordered Lead
15 Plaintiff to file the redlined Second Amended Complaint as a Third Amended Consolidated 16 Complaint for Violations of the Federal Securities Laws. ECF 84. Lead Plaintiff filed the Third 17 Amended Complaint on April 6, 2023. ECF 85.

18 Defendants answered the Third Amended Complaint on April 20, 2023 (ECF 86), and the 19 parties began formal fact discovery. The parties exchanged and reviewed more than 100,000 20 documents (encompassing approximately 650,000 pages) from over a dozen custodians associated 21 with VMware and the production of nearly 25,000 documents (approximately 175,000 pages) from 22 30 third parties subpoenaed to produce documents. Lead Plaintiff took 10 fact witness depositions, 23 and propounded dozens of Requests for Production of Documents, Requests for Admission, and 24 Interrogatories on Defendants. Lead Plaintiff also produced documents in response to Defendants’ 25 requests.

26 On July 2, 2024, the Court issued its Order Granting Motion for Class Certification (“Class 27 Certification Order”) and appointing Lead Plaintiff as Class Representative and appointing Robbins

1 Geller as Class Counsel. ECF 171. The Class Members are persons who purchased the publicly
2 traded Class A common stock of VMware during the Class Period, and who were damaged thereby.⁶
3 At the time the Settlement was achieved, the parties were in the process of preparing to exchange 4 expert reports on various issues, including loss causation, damages, and insider trading, ahead of 5 motions for summary judgment and motions to exclude expert testimony.

6 During the course of the Action, the parties engaged a neutral, third-party mediator, the Hon.
7 Layn R. Phillips (Ret.) of Phillips ADR. The parties engaged in two mediation sessions, one that 8 was in person in Judge Phillips' offices in Corona Del Mar, California, and one that was conducted 9 by videoconference over Zoom. In the interim, the parties also participated in numerous 10 teleconferences with Judge Phillips in an effort to resolve the Action. The parties also exchanged 11 mediation briefs ahead of their in-person mediation session, setting forth their respective arguments 12 concerning liability and damages, and their respective views of the merits of the Action. Though the 13 parties' initial mediation session on March 1, 2024 was unsuccessful in resolving the Action, the 14 parties continued to have telephonic and email exchanges with Judge Phillips regarding a potential 15 resolution. On July 19, 2024, the parties attended the videoconference mediation session with Judge 16 Phillips. Following a detailed evidentiary presentation including deposition testimony and key 17 evidence obtained in discovery, the mediation session resulted in a "mediator's proposal" to settle 18 the Action for $102.5 million in cash, which the parties accepted.

23 ⁶ Guideline §1(b) states that, "if a [litigation] class has been certified," "[t]he motion for 24 preliminary approval should state . . . [a]ny differences between the settlement class and the . . .
25 certified class . . . and an explanation as to why the differences are appropriate." Here, the certified 26 class is identical to that contained in the Settlement, a factor that "weighs in favor of preliminary 27 approval." Norton, 2021 WL 3129568, at *12.

1 III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

2 The Settlement requires Defendants to pay, or cause to be paid, $102.5 million (the 3 “Settlement Amount”), which amount, plus all interest and accretions thereto, comprises the 4 Settlement Fund. Stipulation, ¶2.1.

5 Notice to the Class and the cost of settlement administration will be funded by the Settlement
6 Fund. Stipulation, ¶2.7. Lead Plaintiff proposes that Gilardi, a nationally-recognized class action 7 settlement administrator, be retained as claims administrator, subject to the Court’s approval.
8 Gilardi was chosen following a competitive bidding process and Lead Counsel’s careful review of 9 proposals from several reputable settlement administrators. After reviewing the bids from each 10 administrator, Lead Counsel concluded that Gilardi, because of the merits of its bid, its experience, 11 and the quality of its work in prior engagements for Lead Counsel, is best suited to execute the 12 claims administration in this Action. Lead Counsel respectfully requests that the Court approve its 13 selection. Based on the estimate provided by Gilardi, and assuming that no unexpected or 14 extraordinary issues arise, it expects notice and claims administration costs to be approximately 15 $243,375 through the initial distribution. See, e.g., Crudo Decl., ¶28. The proposed notice plan and 16 plan for claims processing is discussed below in §§IV.C.5 and VI and in the Crudo Declaration.

17 The Notice and Postcard Notice provide that Lead Counsel will move for final approval of 18 the Settlement and: (i) an award of attorneys’ fees in the amount of no more than 25% of the 19 Settlement Amount; (ii) payment of expenses or charges resulting from the prosecution of the Action 20 not in excess of $950,000; (iii) any interest on such amounts at the same rate and for the same period
21 as earned by the Settlement Fund; and (iv) may request an award to Lead Plaintiff pursuant to 15 22 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4) in connection with its representation of the Class.

23 Once Notice and Administration Costs, Taxes, Tax Expenses, and Court-approved attorneys’ 24 fees and expenses and any award to Lead Plaintiff pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4) in connection 25 with its representation of the Class have been paid from the Settlement Fund, the remaining amount 26 (the “Net Settlement Fund”), shall be distributed pursuant to the Court-approved Plan of Allocation 27 to Authorized Claimants. Stipulation, ¶5.5. These distributions shall be repeated until the balance

1 remaining in the Settlement Fund is de minimis. Id., ¶5.9. Any de minimis balance that still remains 2 in the Net Settlement Fund after such reallocation(s) and payment(s) and that is not feasible or 3 economical to reallocate shall be donated to CII, a nonprofit, nonpartisan association of U.S. public, 4 corporate and union benefit funds, other employee benefit plans, state and local entities charged with 5 investing public assets, and foundations and endowments (subject to Court approval). Id. “CII 6 promotes policies that enhance long-term value for U.S. institutional asset owners and their 7 beneficiaries.” cii.org/about.⁷ The Plan of Allocation treats all Class Members equitably based on 8 the timing of their VMware Class A common stock purchases and sales.

9 In exchange for the benefits provided under the Stipulation, all Class Members will release 10 all claims (including, but not limited to, Unknown Claims), demands, losses, rights, and causes of 11 action of any nature whatsoever, that have been or could have been asserted in the Action or could in 12 the future be asserted in any forum, whether foreign or domestic, whether arising under federal, 13 state, common or foreign law, by Lead Plaintiff, any member of the Class, or their successors, 14 assigns, executors, administrators, representatives, attorneys and agents, whether brought directly or 15 indirectly against any of the Released Defendants Parties, which arise out of, are based on, or relate 16 in any way to, directly or indirectly: (i) any of the allegations, acts, transactions, facts, events, 17 matters, occurrences, representations or omissions involved, set forth, alleged or referred to, in the 18 Action, or which could have been alleged in the Action; and (ii) the purchase, acquisition, transfer,

1 holding, ownership, disposition or sale of VMware Class A common stock, by any members of the 2 Class during the Class Period.⁸ Stipulation, ¶¶1.21, 4.1.

3 Lastly, under the terms of the Stipulation, there is no clear sailing agreement, and Defendants 4 have no right to the return of the Settlement Fund for any reason upon the occurrence of the 5 Effective Date. Stipulation, ¶5.9. See also N.D. Cal. Guid. §1(g) (requiring the disclosure of any 6 reversions).

7 IV. THE SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE PRELIMINARILY APPROVED

8 As a matter of public policy, settlement is a strongly favored method for resolving disputes, 9 “particularly where complex class action litigation is concerned.” In re Hyundai & Kia Fuel Econ.
 10 Litig., 926 F.3d 539, 556 (9th Cir. 2019). Settlement of complex cases contributes to the efficient 11 utilization of scarce judicial resources and achieves the speedy resolution of justice. See, e.g., 12 McKnight v. Uber Techs., Inc., 2017 WL 3427985, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 7, 2017) (“The Ninth 13 Circuit maintains a ‘strong judicial policy’ that favors the settlement of class actions.”). With 14 respect to “complex securities actions” like this one, “federal courts [have] long recognized the 15 public policy in favor of . . . settlement.” Nelson v. Bennett, 662 F. Supp. 1324, 1334 (E.D. Cal.
 16 1987) (“[T]here is an overriding public interest in settling and quieting litigation. This is 17 particularly true . . .’ in these days of burgeoning federal litigation, [where] the promotion of 18 settlement is, as a practical matter, an absolute necessity.”). Moreover, the Ninth Circuit “has long

 21 ⁸ When a litigation class has been certified, Guideline §1(b) requires explanation regarding “[a]ny 22 differences between the claims to be released and the claims . . . certified for class treatment.” Here, 23 the release is tailored to the allegations in the Third Amended Complaint and claims that could have 24 been brought based on the factual underpinnings of those allegations. Courts look approvingly on 25 releases that do not “go[] beyond the scope of the present litigation,” are “based on the facts of the 26 complaint,” and are made “with[] regard to the breadth of Plaintiffs’ allegations in the complaint.”
 27 Terry v. Hoovestol, Inc., 2018 WL 4283420, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 7, 2018).

1 deferred to the private consensual decision of the parties” in such cases. Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g
2 Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009).

3 Approval of class action settlements normally proceeds in two stages: (i) preliminary 4 approval, followed by notice to the class; and (ii) final approval. See, e.g., West v. Circle K Stores,
5 Inc., 2006 WL 1652598, at *2 (E.D. Cal. June 13, 2006). By this motion, Lead Plaintiff requests 6 that the Court take the first step in the approval process by granting preliminary approval of the 7 Settlement. At the preliminary approval stage, the court must “determine whether the settlement 8 falls ‘within the range of possible approval.’” Terry, 2018 WL 4283420, at *1 (quoting In re
9 Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1080 (N.D. Cal. 2007)). Courts grant preliminary 10 approval when the proposed settlement: “(1) appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-11 collusive negotiations; (2) does not grant improper preferential treatment to class representatives or 12 other segments of the class; (3) falls within the range of possible approval; and (4) has no obvious 13 deficiencies.” Ang v. Bimbo Bakeries USA, Inc., 2020 WL 2041934, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 28, 14 2020). If the court “finds the proposed settlement fair to its members,” it will then “schedule[] a 15 fairness hearing where it will make a final determination of the class settlement.” In re Haier 16 Freezer Consumer Litig., 2013 WL 2237890, at *3 (N.D. Cal. May 21, 2013).

17 In addition, pursuant to Rule 23(e)(1), the issue at preliminary approval turns on whether the 18 Court “will likely be able to: (i) approve the proposal under Rule 23(e)(2); and (ii) certify the class 19 for purposes of judgment on the proposal.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B). As to the latter requirement, 20 the Court need not determine whether it could certify a class here because it has already certified the 21 Class. See Class Certification Order. Rule 23(e)(2) provides the following factors:

22 (2) Approval of the Proposal. If the proposal would bind class members, the court 23 may approve it only after a hearing and only on finding that it is fair, reasonable, and 24 adequate after considering whether: (A) the class representatives and class counsel
25 have adequately represented the class; (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s 26 length; (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account: (i) the 27 costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed 28 method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

1 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). While these Rule 23(e)(2) factors focus on core concerns of procedure and 2 substance of a settlement, they are not intended to fully displace factors previously adopted by courts
 3 to evaluate settlements. See, e.g., Wong v. Arlo Techs., Inc., 2021 WL 1531171, at *5 (N.D. Cal.
 4 Apr. 19, 2021) (“[T]he Court applies the framework set forth in Rule 23 with guidance from the 5 Ninth Circuit’s precedent.”). In this respect, the Ninth Circuit has long considered the following 6 factors when evaluating a class settlement, some of which overlap with Rule 23(e)(2):

7 [T]he strength of the plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, and likely 8 duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout 9 the trial; the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery completed and the 10 stage of the proceedings; the experience and views of counsel; the presence of a 11 governmental participant; and the reaction of the class members to the proposed 12 settlement.

13 Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998); see also e.g., Lane v. Facebook, 14 Inc., 696 F.3d 811, 819 (9th Cir. 2012) (discussing the Hanlon factors).

15 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement readily satisfies each of the factors identified 16 under Rule 23(e)(2), as well as the applicable Ninth Circuit Hanlon factors and Northern District 17 Guidelines. Therefore, preliminary approval should be granted and notice of the proposed 18 Settlement should be sent to the Class in advance of the final Settlement Hearing.

19 A. The Settlement Satisfies the Rule 23(e)(2) Factors

20 1. Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel Have Adequately 21 Represented the Class

22 Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel have adequately represented the Class as required by Rule 23 23(e)(2)(A). The Settlement is the result of over four years of diligent prosecution of this Action on 24 behalf of the Class. See Hefler v. Wells Fargo & Co., 2018 WL 6619983, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 18, 25 2018) (ruling that Rule 23(e)(2)(A) satisfied for purposes of finally approving settlement and finding 26 “Class Counsel had vigorously prosecuted this action through dispositive motion practice, extensive 27 . . . discovery, and formal mediation”); In re Extreme Networks, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2019 WL 3290770, 28 at *7 (N.D. Cal. July 22, 2019) (same).

Similarly, the Ninth Circuit tasks trial courts with resolving two questions to determine “legal adequacy: (1) do[es] the named plaintiff[] and [its] counsel have any conflicts of interest with other

1 class members and (2) will the named plaintiff[]and [its] counsel prosecute the action vigorously on 2 behalf of the class?” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. The Court previously found Lead Plaintiff and Lead 3 Counsel adequate to represent the Class, see Class Certification Order at 6-7, and no evidence to the 4 contrary has since emerged. Moreover, Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel have no interests 5 antagonistic to other Class Members; Lead Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the Class’s claims; and 6 their interest in obtaining the largest possible recovery for VMware investors is aligned with that of 7 the Class. Mild v. PPG Indus., Inc., 2019 WL 3345714, at *3 (C.D. Cal. July 25, 2019) (“Because 8 Plaintiff’s claims are typical of and coextensive with the claims of the Settlement Class, his interest
 9 in obtaining the largest possible recovery is aligned with the interests of the rest of the Settlement 10 Class members.”). Finally, the substantial monetary recovery obtained after the four years of 11 litigation preceding the Settlement speaks for itself and is an exceptional result for Lead Plaintiff and 12 the Class.

13 2. The Proposed Settlement Is the Result of Good Faith, Arm’s-14 Length Negotiations by Informed, Experienced Counsel Who Were Aware of the Risks of the Litigation

15 Rule 23(e)(2)(B) asks whether a proposed settlement is procedurally adequate, i.e., whether 16 “the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length.” There is an initial presumption that a proposed 17 settlement is fair and reasonable when it is “the product of arms-length negotiations.” *In re Portal
 18 Software, Inc. Sec. Litig.*, 2007 WL 1991529, at *6 (N.D. Cal. June 30, 2007). The Ninth Circuit 19 and the district courts within it “put a good deal of stock in the product of an arms-length, non-20 collusive, negotiated resolution.” Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 965; accord Linney v. Cellular Alaska 21 P’ship, 1997 WL 450064, at *5 (N.D. Cal. July 18, 1997), aff’d, 151 F.3d 1234 (9th Cir. 1998)
 22 (“The involvement of experienced class action counsel and the fact that the settlement agreement 23 was reached in arm’s length negotiations, after relevant discovery had taken place create a 24 presumption that the agreement is fair.”).

25 Here, the proposed Settlement was achieved only after two mediation sessions with Judge 26 Phillips – an experienced mediator with considerable knowledge, experience, and expertise in the 27 field of federal securities law – as well as various teleconferences and correspondences regarding a

1 potential resolution of the Action. Lead Counsel and Defendants’ counsel prepared and presented 2 submissions to Judge Phillips concerning their respective views on the merits of the Action, along 3 with supporting evidence obtained through discovery, and the negotiations were at all times
 4 adversarial and performed at arm’s length. The protracted negotiations under the supervision of a 5 neutral, experienced mediator, together with a “mediator’s proposal,” are evidence that the $102.5 6 million Settlement was reached at arm’s length. See Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983, at *6 (“[T]he 7 Settlement was the product of arm’s length negotiations through two full-day mediation sessions and 8 multiple follow-up calls supervised by former U.S. District Judge Layn Phillips.”); In re MGM
 9 Mirage Sec. Litig., 708 F. App’x 894, 897 (9th Cir. 2017) (noting district court approved settlement 10 reached “after extensive negotiations before a nationally recognized mediator, retired U.S. District 11 Judge Layn R. Phillips”).

12 Moreover, at the time it negotiated the Settlement on behalf of the Class, Lead Counsel had 13 already engaged in exhaustive fact discovery. “A settlement is presumed to be fair if reached in 14 arms-length negotiations after relevant discovery has taken place.” Pataky v. Brigantine, Inc., 2018
 15 WL 3020159, at *3 (S.D. Cal. June 18, 2018). In sum, Lead Counsel, who are experienced securities 16 litigators, were armed with extensive information generated through over four years of litigation at 17 the time the Settling Parties (with Judge Phillips’ assistance) negotiated the Settlement.

18 3. The Settlement Provides Adequate Relief for the Class

19 Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(2)(C), the Court also must consider whether “the relief provided for 20 the class is adequate, taking into account” four relevant factors that are addressed below.⁹ While 21 each of these factors supports preliminary approval of the Settlement, as an initial matter, the $102.5

22
 23 ⁹ In addition to the fourth Hanlon factor (“the amount offered in settlement”), which is subsumed 24 within the Rule 23(e)(2)(C) analysis, courts also evaluate the requirements of Guideline §1(e) with 25 regard to “[t]he anticipated class recovery under the settlement, the potential class recovery if 26 plaintiffs had fully prevailed on each of their claims, and an explanation of the factors bearing on the 27 amount of the compromise.” See, e.g., Norton, 2021 WL 3129568, at *13 (alteration in original).

1 million recovery achieved by the Settlement is undeniably a great result for the Class.¹⁰ See Wong,
2 2021 WL 1531171, at *9 (“The relief that the settlement is expected to provide to class members is 3 a central concern,’ though it is not enumerated among the factors of Rule 23(e).”) (quoting 2018
4 Advisory Committee Notes to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23).

5 Here, the recovery is estimated to be between 10.7% and 34% of recoverable damages 6 depending on whether certain arguments expected to be asserted by Defendants were ultimately 7 accepted by the Court or trier of fact. This is a tremendous result, and the recovery here is nearly 13
8 times larger than the recovery obtained by the SEC. See, e.g., Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983, at *8 9 (finding 15% recovery weighed in favor of approving settlement as it was “higher than recoveries 10 achieved in other securities fraud class actions of similar size (over $1 billion in estimated damages), 11 which settled for median recoveries of 2.5 percent between 2008 and 2016, and 3 percent in 2017”); 12 In re Zynga Inc. Sec. Litig., 2015 WL 6471171, at *11 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 27, 2015) (14% recovery 13 “exceeds the typical recovery” in securities fraud class action settlements); Cheng Jiangchen v.
14 Rentech, Inc., 2019 WL 5173771, at *9 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 10, 2019) (“A 10% recovery of estimated 15 damages is a favorable outcome in light of the challenging nature of securities class action cases.”).
16 As discussed more fully below, the benefits conferred on Class Members by the Settlement far 17 outweigh the costs, risks, and delay of further litigation, and the attorneys’ fees and expenses to be 18 requested are reasonable. Accordingly, the relief provided by the Settlement is adequate and 19 supports approval.

20 a. The Costs, Risks, and Delay of Trial and Appeal
21 Support Approval of the Settlement

22 The factors presented by Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(i) are satisfied because the $102.5 million 23 recovery provides a significant and immediate benefit to the Class, especially in light of the costs, 24

25 _____
26 ¹⁰ Guideline §1(g) requires discussion of “whether . . . money originally designated for class 27 recovery will revert to any defendant.” No such reversion is present here.

1 risks, and delay posed by continued litigation.¹¹ “[S]ecurities actions are highly complex and . . .
2 securities class litigation is notably difficult and notoriously uncertain.” Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983,
3 at *13; see also Mauss v. NuVasive, Inc., 2018 WL 6421623, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 6, 2018)
4 (recognizing that “[s]ecurities class actions are complex actions to litigate” and often involve 5 “complex and highly risky trial and likely post-trial appeals and motion practice”).

6 While Lead Plaintiff at all times remained confident in its ability to ultimately prove its 7 claims at trial, it would be required to prove all elements of its claims to prevail, while Defendants
8 needed to succeed on only one defense to potentially defeat the entire Action. Here, Defendants 9 advanced several arguments disputing both liability and damages; for example, Defendants raised 10 numerous challenges disputing the actionability of their alleged misstatements and vigorously 11 disputed scienter. ECF 64; see In re Immune Response Sec. Litig., 497 F. Supp. 2d 1166, 1172 (S.D.
12 Cal. 2007) (“[T]he issue[] of scienter . . . [is] complex and difficult to establish at trial.”).
13 Defendants also challenged Lead Plaintiff’s theory of loss causation, arguing that the alleged 14 corrective stock price movements were caused by factors unrelated to Lead Plaintiff’s allegations.
15 ECF 64; see Zynga, 2015 WL 6471171, at *9 (“[I]n ‘any securities litigation case, it [is] difficult for 16 [plaintiff] to prove loss causation and damages at trial.” (Second and third alterations in original)).
17 Moreover, the sheer complexity of the underlying issues here and the fact that Defendants would 18 engage competing expert witnesses to testify in support of Defendants’ major defenses, were 19 substantial obstacles to Lead Plaintiff’s potential for success at trial. See, e.g., Weeks v. Kellogg Co., 20 2013 WL 6531177, at *13 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2013) (“The fact that this issue, which is at the heart 21 of plaintiffs’ case, would have been the subject of competing expert testimony suggests that

22
23 ¹¹ Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(i) essentially incorporates the first three traditional Hanlon factors. See, e.g., 24 Wong, 2021 WL 1531171, at *8 (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026); Norton, 2021 WL 3129568, at *5
25 (“The first three [Hanlon] factors are addressed together and require the court to assess the plaintiff’s 26 ‘likelihood of success on the merits and the range of possible recovery’ versus the risks of continued 27 litigation and maintaining class action status through the duration of the trial.”).

1 plaintiffs' ability to prove liability was somewhat unclear; this favors a finding that the settlement is 2 fair.”).

3 Barring the Settlement, this case would require the expenditure of substantial additional sums 4 of time and money at trial and beyond, with no guarantee that any additional benefit would be 5 provided to the Class. Even if Lead Plaintiff succeeded and met its burdens with respect to falsity, 6 materiality, scienter, class-wide reliance under the “fraud on the market” presumption, loss 7 causation, the measure of per-share damages (if any), and control person liability, the case would 8 still be far from over. Defendants would have likely argued that they had the opportunity to 9 challenge an individual Class Member’s membership in the Class, and the amount of damages due to 10 each Class Member. Such a process would have been lengthy, complex, and extremely costly.
11 Moreover, Defendants would almost certainly file an appeal after either or both phases of the case – 12 a process that would further extend the litigation for years and risk reversal of any verdict in favor of 13 Lead Plaintiff. Conversely, the Settlement confers a substantial and immediate benefit on the Class, 14 and avoids the risks associated with obtaining a wholly speculative (though potentially larger) sum 15 in the future.

16 In sum, Defendants had “plausible defenses that could have ultimately left class members 17 with a reduced or non-existent recovery,” which weighs in favor of approving the Settlement. In re 18 TracFone Unlimited Serv. Plan Litig., 112 F. Supp. 3d 993, 999 (N.D. Cal. 2015). Defendants have 19 denied any wrongdoing, and would have presented a multi-pronged defense to Lead Plaintiff’s 20 claims at summary judgment, trial, and in subsequent appeals. The Settlement thus balances the 21 risks, costs, and delay inherent in complex cases. Given the risks of continued litigation and the time
22 and expense that would be incurred to prosecute the Action through trial and beyond, the $102.5
23 million Settlement is a significant recovery that is in the Class’s best interests.

24 b. The Proposed Method for Distributing Relief Is 25 Effective

26 The method for distributing relief to eligible claimants and for processing Class Members’ 27 claims includes standard, well-established, and effective procedures for processing claims and 28 efficiently distributing the Net Settlement Fund, and is therefore an effective method of distribution

1 to the Class under Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(ii). The notice plan includes email and/or direct mail notice to 2 all those who can be identified with reasonable effort, supplemented by publication of the Summary 3 Notice in The Wall Street Journal and once over a national newswire service. The Notice and 4 Summary Notice also will be posted on the case website (www.VMwareSecuritiesLitigation.com).

5 The claims process also includes a standard claim form that requests the information 6 necessary to calculate a claimant's claim amount pursuant to the Plan of Allocation. The Plan of 7 Allocation will govern how Class Members' claims will be calculated and, ultimately, how money 8 will be distributed to Authorized Claimants. The Plan of Allocation was prepared with the 9 assistance of Lead Plaintiff's damages expert and is based primarily on the expert's event study and 10 analysis estimating the amount of artificial inflation in the price of VMware Class A common stock 11 during the Class Period.

12 c. Proposed Attorneys' Fees, Litigation Expenses, and 13 Lead Plaintiff's Award

14 Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(iii) addresses "the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, 15 including timing of payment."¹² Lead Counsel intends to seek an award of attorneys' fees of no 16 more than 25% of the Settlement Amount and expenses in an amount not to exceed $950,000, plus 17 interest on both amounts. Lead Counsel will provide more detailed information in their forthcoming 18 application for attorneys' fees and expenses that will be filed with the Court prior to the final 19 settlement approval hearing.

20 A proposed attorneys' fee of up to 25% of the Settlement Amount is reasonable in light of the 21 work required to reach the Settlement and the "benchmark" often referenced by courts in the Ninth 22 Circuit. See, e.g., Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 968 (9th Cir. 2003) ("This circuit has 23 established 25% of the common fund as a benchmark award for attorney fees."). The proposed 24 attorney fee award here is based on a lodestar of approximately $16.45 million in time expended

25 ¹² Guideline §6 requires discussion of "information about the fees and costs" counsel intends to 26 request, "their lodestar calculation," "the relationship between the amount of the common fund, the 27 requested fee, and the lodestar."

1 over the past four years of litigation. A fee award of 25% of the Settlement Amount would result in 2 a multiplier of approximately 1.5. This multiplier is reasonable and within the range of lodestar
3 multipliers courts in this Circuit regularly approve.¹³ If preliminary approval is granted, Lead
4 Counsel will present their total lodestar with their fee application prior to the final settlement 5 approval hearing.

6 Lead Counsel also intends to seek payment of their litigation expenses and charges in an 7 amount not to exceed $950,000. Lead Counsel will provide appropriate detail in support of any 8 request for an award of litigation expenses with their fee and expense application prior to final 9 approval. Lead Counsel will request that any award of fees and expenses be paid at the time the 10 Court makes its award. Stipulation, ¶6.2.

11 Finally, Lead Counsel also intends to seek an award of up to $7,500 for Lead Plaintiff, 12 pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4), in connection with its representation of the Class. Fleming v.
13 Impax Labs. Inc., 2022 WL 2789496, at *10 (N.D. Cal. July 15, 2022) (approving awards to lead 14 plaintiff and class representative for time spent working with counsel “reviewing documents, 15 providing input into the case’s prosecution, and engaging in meetings, phone conferences, and 16 correspondence with Lead Counsel”); McPhail v. First Command Fin. Plan., Inc., 2009 WL 839841, 17 at *8 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 30, 2009) (noting “requested reimbursement is consistent with payments in 18 similar securities cases”). Lead Counsel believes this amount is fully supported by the work
19 undertaken throughout the Action, which will be set forth in greater detail in connection with Lead 20 Plaintiff’s fee and expense motion.

21
22 ¹³ See, e.g., Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983, at *14 (awarding fee representing a 3.22 multiplier); In re

25 generally Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1050-52 & 1051 n.6 (9th Cir. 2002) 26 (affirming 3.65 multiplier on appeal and finding that multipliers ranged as high as 19.6, with the 27 most common range from 1.0 to 4.0).

1 Approval of the requested attorneys' fees is separate from approval of the Settlement, and the 2 Settlement may not be terminated based on any ruling with respect to attorneys' fees. Stipulation, 3 ¶6.3.

4 d. Other Agreements Made In Connection With the 5 Global Resolution of the Case

6 The Settling Parties have entered into a standard supplemental agreement that provides that if 7 Class Members opt out of the Settlement such that the requests for exclusion from the Class equals 8 or exceeds an agreed-upon threshold, Defendants shall have the option to terminate the Settlement.
 9 Stipulation, ¶7.3. Such agreements are common and do not undermine the propriety of the 10 Settlement. See, e.g., Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983, at *7 (“The existence of a termination option 11 triggered by the number of class members who opt out of the Settlement does not by itself render the 12 Settlement unfair.”). While the Supplemental Agreement is identified in the Stipulation, ¶7.3, and 13 the nature of the agreement is explained in the Stipulation and here, the terms are properly kept 14 confidential.¹⁴

15 4. The Proposed Plan of Allocation Treats Class Members
 16 Equitably and Does Not Confer Preferential Treatment

17 Rule 23(e)(2)(D) asks whether the proposal (here, the Plan of Allocation) treats class
 18 members equitably relative to each other.¹⁵ Drafted with the assistance of Lead Plaintiff's damages
 19 expert, the Plan of Allocation is fair, reasonable, and adequate; it does not ““improperly grant”” Lead 20 Plaintiff or any other Class Member ““preferential treatment.”” Zynga, 2015 WL 6471171, at *10; 21 see also Vinh Nguyen v. Radiant Pharms. Corp., 2014 WL 1802293, at *5 (C.D. Cal. May 6, 2014)

22 ¹⁴ In re Online DVD-Rental Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d 934, 948 (9th Cir. 2015) (finding settlement 23 was not rendered unfair by the inclusion of an opt-out provision where “[o]nly the exact threshold, 24 for practical reasons, was kept confidential”); Spann v. J.C. Penney Corp., 314 F.R.D. 312, 329-30
 25 (C.D. Cal. 2016) (considering confidential supplemental agreement).

26 ¹⁵ Guideline §1(e) states that the “motion for preliminary approval” should discuss the “proposed 27 allocation plan for the settlement fund.”

1 (“A settlement in a securities class action case can be reasonable if it ‘fairly treats class members by 2 awarding a pro rata share to every Authorized Claimant, but also sensibly makes interclass 3 distinctions based upon, inter alia, the relative strengths and weaknesses of class members’ 4 individual claims and the timing of purchases of the securities at issue.”). Specifically, the Plan of 5 Allocation provides formulas for calculating the recognized claim of each Class Member, based on 6 each such Person’s purchases of VMware Class A common stock on the open market during the 7 Class Period and if or when they sold. “‘A plan of allocation that reimburses class members based 8 on the extent of their injuries is generally reasonable.’” NuVasive, 2018 WL 6421623, at *4.

9 Each Authorized Claimant, including Lead Plaintiff, will receive a pro rata distribution 10 pursuant to the Plan of Allocation. No special formula for distribution will apply to Lead Plaintiff.
 11 See Ciuffitelli v. Deloitte & Touche LLP, 2019 WL 1441634, at *18 (D. Or. Mar. 19, 2019) (“The 12 Proposed Settlement does not provide preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the 13 class. . . . [T]he proposed Plan of Allocation compensates all Class Members and [Plaintiffs] equally 14 in that they will receive a pro rata distribution based of [sic] the Settlement Fund based on their net 15 losses.”).

16 B. The Remaining Ninth Circuit Factors Support Preliminary Approval
 17 of the Settlement

18 Each of the relevant Hanlon factors that are not co-extensive with the Rule 23(e)(2) analysis
 19 above (i.e., the third, fifth, and sixth Hanlon factors) also support preliminary approval.¹⁶

20 ¹⁶ “Because there is no governmental entity involved in this litigation,” the seventh Hanlon factor
 21 (“presence of a governmental participant”) is inapplicable. Mendoza v. Hyundai Motor Co., 2017 22 WL 342059, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2017). Regarding the eighth Hanlon factor (“the reaction of 23 the class members to the proposed settlement”), the Class’s reaction is not yet available for 24 consideration because notice of the Settlement has not yet been provided to the Class. See, e.g., 25 Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 665 (E.D. Cal. 2008) (noting “‘a full fairness analysis is 26 unnecessary at this stage’” because some factors bearing on the propriety of settlement cannot be 27 assessed prior to a final approval hearing).

1 1. The Extent of Discovery Completed and the Stage of the 2 Proceedings at Which the Settlement Was Achieved Strongly 3 Support Preliminary Approval

4 The fifth Hanlon factor (the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings 5 at which the settlement was achieved) strongly supports preliminary approval of the Settlement. The 6 Settlement was reached after Lead Plaintiff had conducted significant fact discovery (exchanging 7 with Defendants and reviewing approximately 650,000 pages of documents, obtaining and reviewing 8 approximately 175,000 pages of documents produced by 30 third parties, and completing 10 fact 9 depositions, including one deposition in London and the depositions of the two individual defendants 10 (the CEO and CFO of the corporation)). The Settling Parties had a thorough understanding of many 11 of the arguments, evidence, and witnesses that would be presented at trial. Accordingly, there can be 12 no question that Lead Plaintiff was able to knowledgably evaluate the merits of the Settlement by the 13 time it was reached. As discussed more fully above, Lead Plaintiff's decision to enter into the 14 Settlement was based on a solid understanding of the strengths and potential weaknesses of its 15 claims and Defendants' defenses.

16 2. Risks of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial

17 Lead Counsel believes the risk of maintaining class action status through to the end of trial
18 (the third Hanlon factor) was minimal. Nevertheless, because Rule 23(c)(1) provides that a class 19 certification order may be altered or amended at any time prior to a decision on the merits, 20 Defendants still could have moved to decertify the Class or shorten the Class Period up until the time 21 the jury reached a verdict. See Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 966.

22 3. Experience and Views of Counsel

23 The opinion of experienced counsel (the sixth Hanlon factor) as to the merit of a class
24 settlement after arm's length negotiation is entitled to considerable weight. See Hefler, 2018 WL 25 6619983, at *9 ("That counsel advocate in favor of this Settlement weighs in favor of its approval.").
26 Lead Counsel has significant experience in securities and other complex class action litigation and 27 have negotiated numerous other substantial class action settlements throughout the country. See 28 rgrdlaw.com. Here, "[t]here is nothing to counter the presumption that Lead Counsel's

1 recommendation is reasonable.” In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1043 (N.D.
2 Cal. 2008).

3 Since being appointed by this Court, Lead Counsel largely defeated Defendants’ motions to 4 dismiss, obtained class certification, and aggressively pursued discovery critical to the claims 5 asserted. As a result of these endeavors and with the assistance of sophisticated experts when 6 appropriate, Lead Counsel had gained a firm understanding of the strengths and weaknesses of the 7 claims by the time the Settlement was reached.

8 * * *

9 In sum, each factor identified under Rule 23(e)(2) and by the Ninth Circuit is satisfied. The 10 Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets each of the applicable factors such that notice 11 of the Settlement should be sent to the Class.

12 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE PROGRAM SATISFIES RULE 23, THE 13 PSLRA, AS WELL AS DUE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

14 Rule 23(c)(2)(B) requires the Court to “direct to class members the best notice that is 15 practicable under the circumstances.” The notice must describe ““the terms of the settlement in 16 sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to come forward and be 17 heard.”” Lane, 696 F.3d at 826 (quoting Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 962). The PSLRA further requires 18 that “every settlement notice must include a statement explaining a plaintiff’s recovery.” In re
19 Wireless Facilities, Inc. Sec. Litig., 253 F.R.D. 630, 636 (S.D. Cal. 2008); see also In re Veritas 20 Software Corp. Sec. Litig., 496 F.3d 962, 969 (9th Cir. 2007).

21 Here, Lead Plaintiff proposes to give interested parties notice in two ways. First, notice will 22 be sent by email, where available, and by postcard where no email is available, or where the email 23 has bounced back. The email will include a direct link, and the mailed Postcard (Stipulation, Ex. A-24 4) will include a QR Code, both of which will take the user directly to the case-specific website 25 (www.VMwareSecuritiesLitigation.com) which contains the long form Notice (Stipulation, Ex. A-26 1). Second, Gilardi will publish the Summary Notice (Stipulation, Ex. A-3) in The Wall Street
27 Journal and transmit over Business Wire, an online newswire service. See Crudo Decl., ¶14. The 28 proposed methods for providing notice satisfy the requirements of Rule 23, the PSLRA, and due

1 process. See, e.g., Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 173 (1974) (requiring notice be sent 2 to all class members “whose names and addresses may be ascertained through reasonable effort”);
3 MGM, 708 F. App’x at 896; Vataj v. Johnson, 2021 WL 5161927, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 5, 2021)
4 (finding notice by mail and published in a newswire with national distribution “provided the best 5 practicable notice to the class members”).

6 The form and substance of the notice program are sufficient. The proposed Notice describes 7 the terms of the Stipulation and the Class’s recovery in absolute dollars and, as required by the 8 PSLRA, on an estimated per share basis; the considerations that caused Lead Plaintiff and Lead 9 Counsel to conclude that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable; the maximum attorneys’
10 fees and expenses and Class Representative award that may be sought; the procedure and deadline 11 for requesting exclusion and objecting to the Settlement; the procedure and deadline for participating 12 in the Settlement and instructions on how to complete and submit a Proof of Claim to the Claims
13 Administrator (both on paper and electronically); the proposed Plan of Allocation for the Settlement 14 proceeds; and the date, time, and place of the Settlement Hearing. See Ching v. Siemens Indus., Inc., 15 2013 WL 6200190, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2013) (“The Court finds that the Class Notice 16 adequately describes the nature of the action, summarizes the terms of the settlement, identifies the 17 class and provides instruction on how to . . . object, and sets forth the proposed fees and expenses to 18 be paid to Plaintiff’s counsel and the settlement administrator in clear, understandable language.”).
19 The Notice also provides contact information for Lead Counsel and Gilardi, the proposed Claims 20 Administrator, as well as information regarding the website created for the case.

21 VI. THE PROPOSED CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR

22 Pursuant to Guideline §2, Lead Counsel proposes that the Court appoint Gilardi as the 23 Claims Administrator for the Settlement in order to provide all notices approved by the Court to 24 Class Members, to process Proofs of Claim, and to administer the Settlement. Gilardi is very 25 experienced, having “implemented successful claims administration programs in more than a 26 thousand securities class actions during our more than four decades as an administrator.” See Crudo
27 Decl., ¶4. Gilardi was selected as a result of Requests for Proposals sent to several claims

1 administrators. Based on the proposals received, Lead Counsel determined that Gilardi provided the 2 best overall value to the Class. See Appendix A at 3.

3 While total Notice and Administration Costs are highly dependent on the actual number of 4 notices ultimately emailed or mailed, and the number of claims ultimately received and processed, 5 based on an assumption of 40,000 notices emailed/mailed and 10,000 claims received and processed, 6 Gilardi estimates Notice and Administration Costs for the Action and Settlement up through the 7 initial distribution of approximately $243,375. Crudo Decl., ¶28. These costs and expenses, which 8 are necessary in order to fully and properly administer all notice and claims administration, represent 9 approximately 0.2% of the Settlement Amount. All Notice and Administration Costs will be paid 10 from the Settlement Fund.

11 VII. CONCLUSION

12 The proposed $102.5 million Settlement is an outstanding result for the Class. The Class 13 should have its chance to evaluate it. For the reasons set forth above, Lead Plaintiff respectfully 14 requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, and enter the Preliminary 15 Approval Order.

Lead Counsel for Lead Plaintiff

APPENDIX A

(Compliance with Procedural Guidance of Northern District of California)

A. Guidance 1: Information about the Settlement

1. Guidance 1(a): Any differences between the settlement class and the class proposed in the operative complaint (or, if a class has been certified, the certified class) and an explanation as to why the differences are appropriate.

As explained in §II.B of the attached supporting memorandum (“Preliminary Approval Memorandum”), the Court certified a class of purchasers of publicly traded VMware Class A common stock during the period of August 24, 2018 through February 27, 2020, inclusive, and who were damaged thereby. ECF 171. The certified Class is identical to that contained in the Settlement. See Preliminary Approval Memorandum, at 7 n.5.

2. Guidance 1(b): Any differences between the claims to be released and the claims in the operative complaint (or, if a class has been certified, the claims certified for class treatment) and an explanation as to why the differences are appropriate.

The claims being released closely track the claims alleged. The Third Amended Complaint alleges federal securities law claims based on certain alleged misrepresentations and omissions by Defendants in connection with the purchase of VMware Class A common stock during the Class Period. The definition of “Released Claims” is properly limited to “all claims (including, but not limited to, Unknown Claims), demands, losses, rights, and causes of action of any nature whatsoever, that have been or could have been asserted in the Action or could in the future be asserted in any forum, whether foreign or domestic, whether arising under federal, state, common or foreign law, by [Lead] Plaintiff, any member of the Class, or their successors, assigns, executors, administrators, representatives, attorneys and agents, whether brought directly or indirectly against any of the Released Defendants Parties, which arise out of, are based on, or relate in any way to, directly or indirectly: (i) any of the allegations, acts, transactions, facts, events, matters, occurrences, representations or omissions involved, set forth, alleged or referred to, in the Action, or which could have been alleged in the Action; and (ii) the purchase, acquisition, transfer, holding, ownership,

1 disposition or sale of VMware, Inc. common stock, by any members of the Class during the Class 2 Period.” Stipulation, ¶1.21. Accordingly, the release is carefully tailored to the claims alleged.

3 3. Guidance 1(c): *The class recovery under the settlement (including 4 details about and the value of injunctive relief), the potential class 5 recovery if plaintiffs had fully prevailed on each of their claims, claim by 6 claim, and a justification of the discount applied to the claims.

7 The Class will receive $102.5 million in cash, less approved fees and expenses, through the 8 Settlement. As set forth in the Preliminary Approval Memorandum (§§I. and IV.A.3), the 9 Settlement represents approximately 10.7% to 34% of estimated aggregate damages. There are 10 many factors that contributed to Lead Plaintiff’s acceptance of a discount to that damages value, 11 which are more fully explained in §IV.A.3.a. of the Preliminary Approval Memorandum.

12 4. Guidance 1(d): *Any other cases that will be affected by the settlement, 13 an explanation of what claims will be released in those cases if the 14 settlement is approved, the class definitions in those cases, their 15 procedural posture, whether plaintiffs’ counsel in those cases

17 counsel’s discussions with counsel for plaintiffs in those other cases 18 before and during the settlement negotiations, an explanation of the 19 level of coordination between the two groups of plaintiffs’ counsel, and 20 an explanation of the significance of those factors on settlement 21 approval. If there are no such cases, counsel should so state.

22 Counsel believes there are no other cases that will be affected by the Settlement.

23 5. Guidance 1(e): *The proposed allocation plan for the settlement fund.

24 The proposed allocation plan is set forth in detail in the Notice of Pendency and Proposed 25 Settlement of Class Action (“Notice”) (Stipulation, Ex. A-1 at 8-14) and discussed in the Preliminary 26 Approval Memorandum (§IV.A.4).

27 6. Guidance 1(f): *If there is a claim form, an estimate of the expected 28 claim rate in light of the experience of the selected claims administrator and/or counsel based on comparable settlements, the identity of the examples used for the estimate, and the reason for the selection of those examples.

This is a non-reversionary settlement in which the entire Settlement Fund will be paid out.
Stipulation, ¶5.9. Once the Settlement becomes final, nothing is returned to Defendants. With respect to the number of class members, as well as their identities, these are unknown in securities cases. See Vataj v. Johnson, 2021 WL 1550478, at *11 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 20, 2021) (“The Court

1 understands that the majority of class members are likely beneficial purchasers whose securities 2 were purchased by brokerage firms, banks, institutions, and other third-party nominees in the name
 3 of the nominee, on behalf of the beneficial purchaser.”). Because the number and identity of class 4 members is unknown, both the number and percentage of class members expected to file claims is 5 unknown. Indeed, the number of claims varies widely from case to case as does the size of each 6 claim. In a securities class action settlement, class member participation is determined by the 7 number of damaged shares (shares affected by the inflation caused by the alleged misrepresentations 8 and omissions) represented by the claims submitted. This more accurately reflects how much of the 9 Class is seeking to participate in the Settlement. Consistent with its experience in securities class 10 actions, and based on the effectiveness of the proposed Notice Plan, Lead Counsel anticipates that 11 the vast majority of damaged shares will be represented by the claims submitted in this Action.

12 7. Guidance 1(g): *In light of Ninth Circuit case law disfavoring reversions, whether and under what circumstances money originally designated for class recovery will revert to any defendant, the expected and potential amount of any such reversion, and an explanation as to why a reversion is appropriate.

15 The Settlement is non-reversionary; there will be no reversions. Stipulation, ¶5.9.

16 B. Guidance 2: Settlement Administration

17 a. Guidance 2(a): *Identify the proposed settlement administrator, the settlement administrator selection process, how many settlement administrators submitted proposals, what methods of notice and claims payment were proposed, and the lead class counsel’s firms’ history of engagements with the settlement administrator over the last two years.

20 Lead Plaintiff’s request to appoint Gilardi & Co. LLC (“Gilardi”) to serve as the Claims 21 Administrator, including the reasons for Lead Counsel’s selection of Gilardi, is addressed in §§III 22 and VI of the Preliminary Approval Memorandum. Lead Counsel sent Requests for Proposals to the 23 following administrators: JND Legal Administration, Gilardi & Co. LLC, and A.B. Data. Based on 24 the proposals received, Lead Counsel determined that Gilardi provided the best overall value (quality 25 and price) to the Class. Lead Counsel states that Gilardi and affiliated entities have been appointed 26 as the notice or claims administrator in approximately 50 matters where Robbins Geller was lead or 27

1 co-lead counsel in the past two years. Crudo Decl., ¶5. The proposed methods of notice are 2 addressed in §V of the Preliminary Approval Memorandum.

3 b. Guidance 2(b): Address the settlement administrator's 4 procedures for securely handling class member data (including 5 technical, administrative, and physical controls; retention;
6 destruction; audits; crisis response; etc.), the settlement 7 administrator's acceptance of responsibility and maintenance of 8 insurance in case of errors, the anticipated administrative costs, 9 the reasonableness of those costs in relation to the value of the 10 settlement, and who will pay the costs.

11 Gilardi's Information Security Policy Framework is aligned to ISO/IEC 27002:2013 which is 12 reviewed on an annual basis and communicated to all employees through a comprehensive training 13 program. Crudo Decl., ¶30. Gilardi maintains a number of corporate governance policies that 14 reflect the manner in which it does business, including an employee Code of Conduct that outlines 15 the professional, responsible, and ethical guidelines that govern employee conduct. These policies 16 are available on its website. Id., ¶31.

17 C. Guidance 3: The Proposed Notices to the Class Are Adequate

18 As set forth in §V of the Preliminary Approval Memorandum, Lead Counsel believes that 19 both the form of notice, which incorporates the suggested language from the Procedural Guidance
20 (Stipulation, Ex. A-1 at 20), and the plan for disseminating the notice, satisfy Rule 23, the PSLRA, 21 and due process.

22 D. Guidance 4 and 5: Opt-Outs and Objections

23 The proposed Notice complies with Rule 23(e)(5) in that it discusses the rights Class
24 Members have concerning the Settlement. The proposed Notice includes information on a Class 25 Member's right to: (i) opt out of the Settlement and what is required; (ii) object to the Settlement, or 26 any aspect thereof, and the manner for filing an objection; and (iii) participate in the Settlement and 27 instructions on how to complete and submit a Proof of Claim to the Claims Administrator. The 28 Notice also provides contact information for Lead Counsel, as well as the postal address for the Court. Finally, the Notice incorporates the suggested language regarding objections from the Procedural Guidance. See Stipulation, Ex. A-1 at 18.

1 Lead Counsel’s intended request for attorneys’ fees and expenses is set forth in §IV.A.3.c. of 2 the Preliminary Approval Memorandum.

3 F. Guidance 7: Service Awards

4 Lead Plaintiff Eastern Atlantic States Carpenters Pension Fund will not seek a “Incentive 5 Award”; however, it may seek an award in an amount not to exceed $7,500 pursuant to 15 U.S.C.
 6 §78u-4(a)(4) in connection with its representation of the Class. Support for this award will be 7 presented in support of Lead Counsel’s application for an award of attorneys’ fees and expenses and 8 in support of final approval of the Settlement.

9 G. Guidance 8: Cy Pres Awardees

10 The Settling Parties propose the Council of Institutional Investors (“CII”) as the designated 11 recipient for any de minimis balance remaining after all reallocations are completed. See Stipulation, 12 ¶5.9. CII satisfies the “substantial nexus” test, since it “bears a substantial nexus to the interests of 13 the class members,” In re Google Location History Litig., 2024 WL 1975462, at *12 (N.D. Cal. May 14 3, 2024), and complements the objectives of the federal securities laws. H.R. Conf. Rep. No. 104-15 369, at 31 (1995) (Congress noted that the broader purpose of the federal securities laws is “to 16 protect investors and to maintain confidence in the securities markets, so that our national savings, 17 capital formation and investment may grow for the benefit of all Americans”). “CII is a leading 18 voice for effective corporate governance, strong shareowner rights and sensible financial regulations 19 that foster fair, vibrant capital markets.” See cii.org/about.
